TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Copyright	All materials used for this conference remain copyright of MICDM and may not be copied, circulated without MICDM's express and written permission.
Delegate's Code of Conduct	By booking the conference, the Delegate agree to the following code of conduct, the host requirements and venue restrictions and precautions: • Delegate will not attend the conference if displaying symptoms of a communicable disease. Should symptoms develop during the attendance at the conference the Delegate should inform a member of MICDM's staff or by email (micdm.adr@gmail.com) and he/she agree not to attend any further conference sessions or related events and comply with all local and national restrictions. • Delegate travel at its own risks, and agree that the MICDM cannot be held responsible if he/she contracts a communicable disease during the conference or after returning from the conference. • Delegate agree to the extent permitted by law that MICDM shall not be held responsible for: any travel costs incurred for travelling to and from the conference; any travel costs that may be irrecoverable due to the cancellation or postponement of the conference; any losses or liabilities associated with contracting a communicable disease whether on the way to, during or after the conference. • Delegate agree that, if asked by the relevant local or national authorities, MICDM has permission to pass on personal information and contact details to those authorities should contact tracing be required.
Photography and filming	Sessions and/or social functions may be photographed and/or filmed and some of this content may be used for MICDM's marketing materials, members communications, products or services. Should there be any concerns about this, or that refusal to be featured in any of these materials please contact the MICDM by email: micdm.adr@gmail.com. No delegate, attending in any capacity, is authorised to record or film the conference working sessions, workshops or social function without the prior written permission of the MICDM.
No deductions or withholdings	All fees payable to MICDM by Delegates in accordance with the terms contained in these 'Terms and Conditions' shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever. If any deductions or withholdings are required by the bank or the law to be made from any fees payable to MICDM by the Delegate under the terms contained in these 'Terms and Conditions' section, the Delegate shall pay such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave the MICDM with the same amount as MICDM would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.

Conference sell-outs	MICDM's conferences venue is of a suitable size for the event; however, should the conference be a sell-out, prospective delegates will be informed, and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will operate on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving delegate cancellations. The waiting list for a conference will close once it has reached ninety per cent of the conference venue capacity, as it is highly unlikely a spot will become available. MICDM will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by the Delegate who travels to the conference without a confirmed place at the event.
Cancellation and Postponement	If cancellation is received by email to micdm.adr@gmail.com 5 (five) days prior to the date of the Conference, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to MICDM. MICDM regret that no refunds can be made after this time. Conference or social event bookings received after this time will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Should delegates encounter difficulties in obtaining visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply. Bank transfer payments: Upon submission of the completed booking form to MICDM, Delegates are considered 'booked' pending the receipt of the bank payment. The cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as the booking is received. Provided the cancellation of the booking in accordance with the 'Terms and Conditions', the Delegate must then confirm in writing to the MICDM as soon as possible, MICDM may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the Conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither MICDM nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the Conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive). Conference booking is strictly not transferable.
Guests	Registration is reserved to registered Delegates. Delegates are not permitted to invite guests to attend any working sessions, workshops, or conference social functions. If Guests are in attendance, they shall be liable for payment of the full conference fee.
Indemnity	MICDM, its officers and staff accept no responsibility for any views expressed, presentations or materials produced by delegates or speakers at the Conference.

Promotion of Publicity Materials	Please note that no delegate, individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during the Conference, unless by prior arrangement with MICDM. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the MICDM by email micdm.adr@gmail.com
Conduct of Delegates	MICDM conferences aims to provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for legal practitioners and professionals. MICDM values the participation of every delegate and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all Conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, MICDM's staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the Conference and at all Conference events, receptions, and parties, whether officially organised by the MICDM or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at any MICDM event are required to conform to MICDM's Requirements
Dietary requirements	MICDM endeavours to accommodate dietary requests confirmed before closure of bookings. Requests made after this time cannot be guaranteed.
Badges and Identification	For security reasons, name badges must always be worn during the Conference and at social functions. Proof of identity is required to collect your badge and for replacement badges. Checks will be in place and staff will summon delegates not wearing a valid conference badge and those believed to be sharing badges. Anyone found wearing a badge that they are not entitled to wear will have the badge confiscated and will be asked to leave the conference.
Disclaimer	MICDM shall not be responsible for any injury to or death of any delegate or the loss and destruction of, or damage to any property on the event premises whether arising from fire, theft, or any cause and whomsoever caused or arising from the negligence (faute lourde ou légère) or wrongful acts of any person in its employment or under delegation or instruction of MICDM or the Host.
